

RACIAL HEALING PRACTICE

What Does a Racially Just World Look Like to Me?

Close your eyes and let yourself envision a racially just world. Dream big, remove any barriers that come up, and write your vision here.

Below, write what you need to keep in mind as you work toward your vision of a racially just world.

The page contains 20 horizontal lines for writing. In the background, there is a faint, light gray sunburst or radial pattern that originates from the center of the page and extends towards the edges, creating a subtle decorative effect behind the writing lines.
